Experts offer advice on applying for college financial aid

FOR RELEASE: Oct. 19, 2020

Experts from Kentucky colleges and universities provide practical information about applying for financial aid and field questions from viewers on topics such as when to fill out the FAFSA form and how long before universities reply to prospective students. The following guests are slated to appear on the program:

- Michael Birchett, director of counseling & outreach at the University of Kentucky
- Runan Evans, associate dean of financial aid at Bluegrass Community and Technical College
- Amy Smith, compliance officer at Sullivan University
- Michelle Standridge, director of financial aid at Spalding University

Financial Aid 2021: Education Matters airs Monday, Oct. 26 at 9/8 pm on KET.
