Kentucky Health* discusses role of contact tracing in COVID-19 response

FOR RELEASE: Dec. 28, 2020

Dr. Wayne Tuckson talks with Mark Carter, executive policy advisor for Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services, about Kentucky's contact tracing program, its importance in slowing the spread of COVID-19, and the role of local public health departments.

Kentucky Health: Contact Tracing: Knowing Keeps Us All Safe airs Sunday, Jan. 3, at 12:30 pm/11:30 am on KET.

Kentucky Health is a weekly KET program that seeks to improve the people's health through education and increased awareness. Kentucky Health is hosted by Dr. Wayne Tuckson, a colorectal surgeon in Louisville, and produced by Laura Krueger.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky's preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
