KET productions honored with national Telly and Aurora awards

FOR RELEASE: May 25, 2021

Several KET productions were recently honored with national awards.

Kentucky Seasons, a KET documentary that shows the beauty of Kentucky locations throughout the year, received three Telly Awards, which honor excellence in video and television. The honors include:

- Justin Allen and David Dampier won a Silver Telly award for Videography.
- Brandon Cooper won a Silver Telly award for Sound Design.
- John Bacon, Jim Piston, Sarah Kadish and Justin Allen won a Bronze Telly for Editing.

Additionally, KET producer Frank Simkonis was honored with three Aurora Awards, which promotes excellence and advancement in filmmaking. Simkonis was honored with a Platinum Best in Show award for Toying with Still Life as well as two Gold awards, one for Secret Gardens and another for Ulysses.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky's preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
