Ring in the New Year at KET's Martinis & Mistletoe fundraising event in Covington

FOR RELEASE: Nov. 15, 2021

At its annual Martinis & Mistletoe fundraising event, KET invites guests to ring in the holiday season—while also helping support KET's mission of providing quality educational programming and services to citizens throughout the state.

Hosted by the Northern Kentucky Regional Board of the Commonwealth Fund for KET, this year's Martinis & Mistletoe is scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 8, from 5-8 pm, at the Drees Pavilion in Devou Memorial Overlook in Covington.

The evening's honorees are Garren and Susan Colvin, whom KET is pleased to recognize for their contributions to the Northern Kentucky Community and their commitment to public health. The Colvins also would like to share the evening's recognition with all the healthcare heroes working across the Commonwealth, who help keep our communities safe.

The event will include specialty cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and a silent auction. Auction highlights include an African Safari, in-home wine tastings, Caribbean trips and more! Masks are required when not eating or drinking. Tickets are $75 per person and may be purchased online at KET.org/martinis or by calling (859) 258-7228.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky's preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
