KET nominated for national public television award

FOR RELEASE: Dec. 2, 2021

KET was nominated as a finalist for a national award from the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA), which honors public television's best work in education, community engagement, and communications.

KET was named a finalist in the Excellence in Education category.

Award winners will be chosen at the 2022 NETA Conference, which is scheduled for January, 2022.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile.
