‘Kentucky Health’ discusses telehealth and other emerging communications between doctors and patients

FOR RELEASE: Jan. 26, 2021

On the next episode of Kentucky Health, Dr. Wayne Tuckson talks with Dr. Shannon Lynn, a primary care physician, about telehealth, on-line message centers and other emerging forms of communication between medical providers and patients.

Kentucky Health: Changes in Physician and Patient Communication airs Sunday, Jan. 30, at 12:30 pm/11:30 am on KET and Monday, Jan. 31, at 2/1 pm on KET2.

Kentucky Health is a weekly KET program that seeks to improve the people’s health through education and increased awareness. Kentucky Health is hosted by Dr. Wayne Tuckson, a colorectal surgeon in Louisville, and produced by Laura Krueger.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky’s preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
