Tickets are available for KET's February Fanfare fundraising event in Louisville on Feb. 26

FOR RELEASE: Feb. 8, 2022

KET's February Fanfare event – an evening featuring the swanky flapper and gangster styles of the roaring 1920's – is slated for Feb. 26 from 7-11 pm at The Olmsted in Louisville.

The event marks the 23rd annual gala of the Greater Louisville Regional Board of the Commonwealth Fund for KET, a fundraising event that supports KET's programming and services, and will be hosted by honorary event chairs, Jim and Missy Allen.

The evening includes a plated dinner, live music and a silent auction for items such as vacation packages to France and the Caribbean, Avett Brothers tickets, 21C Hotel and dinner package, as well as many other great gifts and services!

Tickets are $150 per person or $250 for "Friends of Jim & Missy" with event recognition. For more information, contact Jennifer Adams at (800) 866-0366 or jadams@KET.org. Tickets can be reserved online at KET.org/fanfare. Space is limited, early reservations are suggested.

The venue will be limited to 50 percent capacity, and masks are encouraged when guests are not eating or drinking.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky's preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
