‘Kentucky Health’ discusses chronic disease management for elderly patients

FOR RELEASE: March 16, 2022

Balancing quality of life and quantity of life is an important part of caring for seniors with progressive chronic diseases. In this episode of Kentucky Health, host Dr. Wayne Tuckson welcomes Dr. Bonnie Lazor, medical director at Nazareth Home in Louisville, to discuss its new Helping Embrace Life Decisions program and other senior care issues.

Kentucky Health: Chronic Disease Management for the Elderly airs Sunday, March 20, at 12:30 pm/11:30 am on KET and Monday, March 21, at 2/1 pm on KET2.

Kentucky Health is a weekly KET program that seeks to improve the people’s health through education and increased awareness. Kentucky Health is hosted by Dr. Wayne Tuckson, a colorectal surgeon in Louisville, and produced by Laura Krueger.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky’s preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
