‘Kentucky Health’ discusses blood health and best practices

FOR RELEASE: April 3, 2022

In this episode of Kentucky Health, Dr. Wayne Tuckson talks with Dr. Carolyn Burns, president of the Society for the Advancement of Patient Blood Management (SABM), about best practices in the field that both maximize good patient outcomes and conserve blood resources.

Kentucky Health: Blood transfusions airs Sunday, April 3, at 12:30 pm/11:30 am on KET and Monday, April 4, at 2/1 pm on KET2.

Kentucky Health is a weekly KET program that seeks to improve the people’s health through education and increased awareness. Kentucky Health is hosted by Dr. Wayne Tuckson, a colorectal surgeon in Louisville, and produced by Laura Krueger.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than one million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky’s preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
