‘Kentucky Life’ spotlights Lexington fashion guru known for his Tambour beading, soap box derby racing, Hometown community, Somernites Cruise in Somerset, and the Triangular Jog on Kentucky-Tennessee border

FOR RELEASE: April 20, 2022

The next episode of Kentucky Life visits with Bob Haven of Lexington, who’s known worldwide in the fashion industry for his Tambour beading; travels to Western Kentucky, where soap box derby racing is thriving; explores the rich history of the Hometown community in Versailles; takes a drive on the Somernites Cruise, a car enthusiast’s dream in Somerset; and investigates the unusual history of the Triangular Jog that borders Kentucky and Tennessee.

Kentucky Life airs Saturday, April 30, at 8/7 pm on KET, and on Monday, May 2, at 7/6 pm on KET2.

Kentucky Life is a KET production, hosted by Doug Flynn and produced by Chelsea Gorham. View more Kentucky Life episodes online, as well as those from KET’s archives, at KET.org.
