

‘The Farmer & The Foodie’ explore the importance of draft animals in agriculture

FOR RELEASE: Jan. 3, 2022

On the next episode of The Farmer & The Foodie, the KET cooking program in which hosts Maggie Keith and Lindsey McClave visit with Kentucky farmers to learn how their food is grown, the duo explore the importance of draft animals in agriculture.

Maggie and Lindsey learn team driving and animal husbandry at the Wendell Berry Farming Program in Henry County and go horseback riding at Foxhollow Farm. Recipes include winter squash & potato gratin and chimichurri sauce.
