

Tickets are now available for KET's February Fanfare fundraising event in Louisville on Feb. 18

FOR RELEASE: Jan. 10, 2023

You're invited to celebrate KET's educational programs and services at the 24th annual February Fanfare gala presented by the Louisville Regional Board of the Commonwealth Fund for KET.

This year's theme, Moonlight Masquerade, celebrates all things Mardi Gras – from Bourbon Street to Kentucky's bourbon capitol! Come revel in a bedazzled mask, fall in line with a brassy band, and celebrate the melting pot of cultures and traditions of the season. Event proceeds support KET's programs and services.

The event is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 18, from 7-11 pm at The Olmsted in Louisville and will be hosted by honorary chairs Alice and Wade Houston.

The evening includes a plated dinner, open bar, dancing, dancing to live music from The Crashers and a silent auction for items such as vacation packages, jewelry, furnishings, art as well as many other great gifts and services!

Tickets are $150 per person or $1,800 per table for eight. Tickets can be reserved online at KET.org/Fanfare. For more information, contact Jennifer Adams at (800) 866-0366 or jadams@KET.org.

Additionally, tickets are available for The After Mardi Party, sponsored by Keller Williams-Louisville. This is when the real party starts! Tickets are $75 and include cocktails, dessert and dancing to The Crashers from 9-11 pm. Tickets and more event information is available at KET.org/Fanfare.

Special thanks to all our event sponsors: Baird, HJI Supply Chain Solutions, LG&E and KU, Keller Williams Realty, Cave Hill Heritage Foundation, The Glenview Trust Company, Alice and Wade Houston, Louisville Urban League, MCM CPAs & Advisors, PNC Bank, Specific
