

‘Believe Me: Help and Hope for Sexual Assault Survivors’ shares powerful stories of Kentuckians who were victims of sexual violence

FOR RELEASE: April 24, 2023

More than half of all women and nearly one in three men in the United States have been the victims of some form sexual violence, according to the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control.

Believe Me: Help and Hope for Sexual Assault Survivors is a documentary that explores the powerful stories of a dozen Kentuckians who were the victims of sexual assault, offering hope to those who’ve lived through similar experiences.

The one-hour film is produced the Kentucky Association of Sexual Assault Programs.

Believe Me: Help and Hope for Sexual Assault Survivors

KET Sunday, April 30 • 2/1 pm

KET KY Monday, May 8 • 5/4 pm

Watch on-demand at KET.org and on the PBS app

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than two million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky’s preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.

###

CONTACT:

Elizabeth Greenfield
Director, Marketing and Communications
(859) 258-7749 | egreenfield@ket.org