‘Kentucky Life’ story on all-female Honor Flight nominated for national NETA award

FOR RELEASE: Aug. 17, 2023

A story from Kentucky Life on an all-female Honor Flight was recently nominated for a national award from the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA). The NETA awards honor public television’s best work in education, community engagement, and communications.

The Kentucky Life segment – which tells the story of an all-female group of Kentucky veterans who took part in an Honor Flight of Kentucky trip to Washington, D.C., to visit the national capital’s monuments and memorials devoted to military veterans – was nominated in the Military Chronicles category.

The Kentucky Life segment was produced by Tom Bickel. The story may be viewed online at KET.org/HonorFlight.

The winners will be announced Sept. 10, 2023, at the 55th Annual Public Media Awards Gala in Grand Rapids, Mich.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than two million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky’s preeminent public media organization at KET.org, on Twitter @KET and at facebook.com/KET.
