

‘Big Family: The Story of Bluegrass Music’ available for online streaming

FOR RELEASE: Sept. 25, 2023

Big Family: The Story of Bluegrass Music, the KET-produced documentary that explores the life of Bill Monroe and traces the history of bluegrass music, is now available for online streaming at KET.org/BigFamily.

The two-hour film, narrated by actor and bluegrass aficionado Ed Helms, was released in 2019 and was distributed nationally by PBS. Big Family follows Monroe’s career, from his early years in Rosine, Ky., to his move with his brothers to Chicago, where he got his start at the city’s largest radio station, to his move to Nashville, where he ultimately found a home on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry.

Big Family: The Story of Bluegrass Music, written by Teresa Day and produced by Matt Grimm and Nick Helton, also features performances by and interviews with dozens of bluegrass’ biggest names, including Bela Fleck, Ricky Skaggs, Chris Thile, Alison Brown, Sam Bush, JD Crowe, Del McCoury, Bobby Osborne, Laurie Lewis, and many more.
