

‘Kentucky Life’ explores a program that helps veterans through music and dance, archeologists’ findings that offer a window into the past at Camp Nelson, and the first all-female Honor Flight of Kentucky

FOR RELEASE: Nov. 11, 2023

On this special Veterans Day episode of Kentucky Life, host Chip Polston learns about a program that helps veterans and their families cope with PTSD through music and dance; glimpses into the past at Camp Nelson, a former Union army supply depot, through the work of archeologists; and celebrates the story of the Honor Flight of Kentucky, which recently organized its first all-female veteran flight to Washington, D.C.
