‘Inside Louisville’ talks with Sadiqa Reynolds about her vision to found the Norton Sports and Learning Center in Louisville’s West End neighborhood

FOR RELEASE: Feb. 4, 2024

Since opening its doors in Louisville in 2021, the Norton Sports and Learning Center has brought more than 30,000 visitors to the state-of-the art track facility. But it is more than a sports center: it also has become a catalyst for more development in Louisville’s long-neglected West End neighborhood. But it almost didn’t happen.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, Kelsey Starks talks with Sadiqa Reynolds, president of the Norton Sports and Learning Center, about the facililty and how pure grit and determination helped make her vision a reality.
