FOR RELEASE: Jan. 28, 2024

Tom Owen is well known in Louisville, both for being an incredible storyteller and the city’s chief historian. A fixture in local government for many years, Tom can now be found giving walking tours, digging through archives at the University of Louisville or telling stories on his YouTube channel. Last year his son, Andrew Owen, followed in his father’s footsteps and ran successfully for a seat on Louisville’s Metro Council.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, Kelsey Starks talks with the dynamic family duo about their love for Louisville.
