

Tickets now available for KET's February Fanfare fundraising event in Louisville on Friday, Feb. 9

FOR RELEASE: Feb. 5, 2024

Celebrate Kentucky Educational Television's (KET's) educational programs and services at the 25th annual February Fanfare gala presented by the Louisville Regional Board of the Commonwealth Fund for KET.

The event is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 9, from 7-9 pm at The Olmsted in Louisville and will be hosted by honorary chairs Pam and Paul Thompson of Louisville.

This year's theme – Lights. Camera. Action! – is KET's silver anniversary salute to the silver screen, celebrating the glamour of Hollywood's golden age with guests dressing as their favorite movie stars. Event proceeds support KET's programs and services.

The evening includes a plated dinner, open bar, dancing to live music from The Crashers and a silent auction including packages such as Sporting Clays with a bourbon tasting, tickets to Chris Stapleton and Carrie Underwood concerts with airfare included and unique "behind the scenes experiences".

Tickets are $150 per person or $1,800 per table for eight which includes the after party. Tickets can be reserved online at KET.org/Fanfare. For more information, contact Jennifer Adams at (502) 589-3538 or jadams@KET.org.

Tickets are also available for A-List After Party only, sponsored by Keller Williams-Louisville. Tickets are $75 and include cocktails, dessert and dancing to The Crashers from 9-11 pm. Tickets and more event information is available at KET.org/Fanfare.
