

Twenty-one exceptional Kentucky educators honored as part of KET All Stars class

FOR RELEASE: Feb. 21, 2024

Twenty-one educators in Kentucky were honored as part of the public television network's KET All Stars program, which celebrates exceptional educators across the state who are making a profound impact in the lives of their learners and within their communities.

KET's commitment to fostering a culture of excellence in education and providing educators with high-quality instructional resources is the foundation of the KET All Stars program. Honorees will participate in specialized training and collaboration with the KET Education team and serve as ambassadors for KET and PBS educational programs and resources.

The program is funded in part by the John R. Hall Endowment for Education. For more information about the All Stars program, please visit KET.org/AllStars.

The 2024 All Star class of honorees includes:

- Annie Adams, instructor, Boyd County Adult Education, KEDC
- Carrie Altmaier, parent educator, Parents as Teachers, Pulaski County Schools
- Beth Atkins, media librarian, LeGrande Elementary School, Hart County Public Schools
- Marc Blunk, digital learning coach and school technology coordinator, Booker T. Washington Elementary, Fayette County Public Schools
- Pamela Buchanan, director of adult education, Henderson Community College, Henderson
- Melanie Callahan, musical theatre teacher, Laurel County Public School District
- Dr. David Childs, director of Black Studies & associate professor of social studies education and history at Northern Kentucky University
- Dion Copeland, social studies teacher, Leestown Middle School, Fayette County Public School
- Tiffany Crook, first grade teacher, Waynesburg Elementary School, Lincoln County
- Kyri Demby, K-5 music and art teacher, Jacob Elementary School, Jefferson County Public School
- Dr. J.T. Elliott, special education teacher, Waco Elementary School, Madison County Public Schools
- Allison Hoskins, preschool teacher, Head Start, Stinnett Elementary School, Leslie County
- Tim Jones, library media specialist with John F. Kennedy Elementary School, Louisville
- Dagmar Morales, programmer, Kenton County Public Library, Independence Branch
- Sheri Muehleman, gifted teacher, Murray Independent Schools
- Lisa Newell-Hare, third grade teacher, Adair County Elementary, Adair County Public Schools
- Emily Northcutt, school librarian, Marnel C. Moorman School, Shelby County Public Schools
- Michelle Rauch, media arts teacher, Eastside Technical Center, Fayette County Public Schools
- Chris Tyson Renshaw, digital learning coach, Christian County School District

- Dee Dee Webb, school media specialist, school technology coordinator and robotics coach, South Warren Middle School, Bowling Green
- Kim Yates, English teacher, Pineville Independent Schools

ABOUT KET EDUCATION

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than two million people each week via television, online and mobile. Learn more about Kentucky's preeminent public media organization at KET.org/Education, on X @EducationKET and on Facebook @EducationKET.

###

CONTACT:

Elizabeth Greenfield
Director, Marketing and Communications
(859) 258-7749 | egreenfield@ket.org