

‘Inside Louisville’ talks with economic development officials about the city’s plans for downtown

FOR RELEASE: March 17, 2024

What’s next for downtown Louisville?

With the departure of corporate giant Humana and a growing number of vacant office buildings, city leaders are trying to re-imagine the city’s downtown.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, Kelsey Starks talks with Rebecca Fleischaker, executive director of the Louisville Downtown Partnership, who outlines the organization’s vision for the future of downtown; and Clark Welch, vice-president of economic development for Greater Louisville, Inc., who shares the organization’s national marketing strategy to recruit new companies to relocate to Louisville.
