

‘Inside Louisville’ talks about the city’s love affair with professional sports

FOR RELEASE: March 31, 2024

On this episode of Inside Louisville, as the city prepares to host the 150th Kentucky Derby just weeks ahead of the PGA Championship golf tournament and continues to be among the names of cities potentially vying for an NBA expansion team, host Kelsey Starks talks with Greg Fante, president and CEO of the Louisville Sports Commission, and J. Bruce Miller, an attorney, about why Louisville is a prime spot for sports fans.

From bringing in national competitions to rumors of an NBA team eyeing the ‘ville, we explore all the possibilities when it comes to lifting up sports in Louisville.
