

‘Inside Louisville’ explores an arts partnership with the Fund for the Arts and Kentucky Shakespeare

FOR RELEASE: May 26, 2024

Louisville’s Fund for the Arts is celebrating 75 years of raising money and supporting local arts organizations in our community. To date, they have raised close to $200 million. One of the organizations to benefit is Kentucky Shakespeare – the longest-running, free, non-ticketed Shakespeare festival in the United States.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, Kelsey Starks explores the impact these arts partnerships and talks with Tory Parker of the Fund for the Arts and Matt Wallace of Kentucky Shakespeare.
