

KET to visit Owensboro in July to tape episodes of ‘Kentucky Edition’ and ‘Kentucky Tonight’

FOR RELEASE: July 3, 2024

KET is going on the road to visit Owensboro, where it will be recording special episodes of its award-winning public affairs programs. During the second week of July, KET will be broadcasting a pair of episodes of Kentucky Edition and an episode of Kentucky Tonight from the Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame & Museum in Owensboro.

Throughout the week, Kentucky Edition will feature special stories about the region, including segments on the Owensboro Riverfront, the BBQ Trail and the city’s history as well as profiles of local notables such as businessman Kirk Kirkpatrick, Pulitzer Prize winning photographer Moneta Sleet Jr., and artist Aaron Kizer.

Kentucky Edition airs each weekday evenings at 6:30/5:30 pm on KET and at 11/10 pm on KET2. The program may be streamed on-demand at KET.org/KentuckyEdition or on the PBS App.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, where learning comes to life for more than two million people each week via television, online and mobile.
