

KET productions and resources nominated for national NETA awards

FOR RELEASE: Aug. 14, 2024

Several KET programs and educational resources recently were nominated as finalists for awards from the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA). The NETA awards honor public television's best work in education, community engagement and communications.

KET received the following nominations:

- KET Media Lab and News Quiz Field Trips – Learning Events category
- Kentucky Edition – News & Public Affairs category
- Becoming bell hooks – Historical Features category
- The Legacy of Black Horsemen – Historical Features category

Award winners will be chosen at the 56th Public Media Awards presentation in Pittsburgh on September 15.
