

KET's Be My Neighbor Day event in Louisville celebrates what it means to be a caring neighbor

FOR RELEASE: Aug. 28, 2024

Families are invited to join KET and its partners PNC Grow Up Great and Fred Rogers Productions for Be My Neighbor Day on Sunday, Sept. 29, from noon-3 pm at E.P. "Tom" Sawyer State Park in Louisville.

The free, family event builds on the values and themes presented in Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood, showing children what it means to be a caring neighbor and teaching them the importance of giving back to the community.

Be My Neighbor Day features an assortment of fun and engaging activities:

- Meet & greet with Daniel Tiger
- Community helper stations, featuring first responders, librarians and more
- Fire truck, helicopter, trolley, bucket lift and more
- Arts & crafts and nature activity stations
- Quiet tent with iPads and award-winning PBS apps
- Live music from local musician John Gage
- New puppy visit tent with Kentucky Humane Society
- Healthy snacks

The event is free, but registration is required at KET.org/Neighbor.

Special thanks to all our event sponsors: LG&E - KU, Delta Dental, Kosair for Kids, I Heart Media, PlayPros, Norton Healthcare, Kentucky Association of Nurse Anesthetists, Dr. Rebecca Bartee & Synthia Hood Deese and Mister "P" Express.

Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood is in its seventh season on PBS KIDS. It is produced by Fred Rogers Productions and 9 Story Media Group and animated by 9 Story's award-winning animation studio, Brown Bag Films.
