

KET Forum answers viewers' questions about estate planning, wills and medical and financial decisions

FOR RELEASE: Sep. 3 2024

If only life got easier as you or your loved ones enter their golden years. More often, the questions seniors face as they age grow more complex. Preparing for life's uncertainties with the right documentation can prevent hardship for families down the road.

Join host Renee Shaw for this live call-in forum answering viewers' questions on getting your financial and medical affairs in order. A panel of experts will discuss wills, estate planning, medical and financial decisions and other documentation.

Email questions in advance to publicaffairs@ket.org.
