

‘Kentucky Life’ celebrates its 30th anniversary with new season of great stories about Kentucky’s most interesting people, places and traditions

FOR RELEASE: Sep. 18, 2024

Kentucky Life kicks off its 30th season this month with host Chip Polston traveling the Commonwealth to discover more great stories about Kentucky’s most interesting people, places and traditions.

The new season features episodes about spooky Kentucky ghost stories; Kentucky’s most famous musical artists from each of the Commonwealth’s counties; Eastern Kentucky University’s aviation program, where they’re preparing the next generation of pilots; and a look at the total solar eclipse that traveled over Paducah last April.
