

‘Inside Louisville’ looks at some of the city’s favorite reading resources—including the city’s oldest independent bookstore, the Louisville Free Public Library and the Kentucky Author Forum

FOR RELEASE: Oct. 13, 2024

From childhood to adulthood, Louisville loves to read.

In this page-turning episode of Inside Louisville, host Kelsey Starks learns about the history behind Carmichael’s, Louisville’s oldest independent bookstore, and the Louisville Free Public Library, which is responsible for a lot more than just renting out books.

Plus, Starks visits with the producers of the Kentucky Author Forum to learn about its upcoming season and how Dolly Parton is helping Kentucky kids learn to read early.
