

‘Inside Louisville’ talks to mass shooting survivor Whitney Austin about her efforts to find common ground solutions to gun violence

FOR RELEASE: Oct. 20, 2024

Whitney Austin calls herself an “accidental activist.” After miraculously surviving a mass shooting in 2018, she felt a call to action to find common ground solutions to a gun violence epidemic.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, host Kelsey Starks talks to Whitney about her story and her efforts to create the Whitney Strong Organization, which strives to cut through the divisiveness on the issue to create change.
