

‘Inside Louisville’ celebrates 20-year anniversary of the Frazier History Museum

FOR RELEASE: Nov. 3, 2024

The Frazier History Museum is celebrating its 20-year anniversary. Today, the museum is billed as “where the world meets Kentucky,” but it didn’t start that way.

On this episode of Inside Louisville, host Kelsey Starks talks with Andy Treinen and Rachel Platt of the Frazier Museum about the history of the museum, how it’s changed dramatically over its two decades and its newest exhibit on display that highlights all 120 counties in Kentucky, and its position as the official starting point of the Kentucky Bourbon trail.
