

KET Forum answers viewers' questions about wills, estate planning and other financial decisions

FOR RELEASE: Dec. 9, 2024

If only life got easier as you or your loved ones enter their golden years. More often, the questions seniors face as they age grow more complex. Preparing for life's uncertainties with the right documentation can prevent hardship for families down the road.

Join host Renee Shaw for this live call-in forum answering viewers' questions on getting one's financial and medical affairs in order. A panel of experts will discuss wills, estate planning and other financial decisions that families face as they enter their retirement years.

Email questions in advance to publicaffairs@ket.org.

Wills & Estate Planning Call-In: A KET Forum
