

KET to broadcast Rick Steves special featuring the Louisville Orchestra

FOR RELEASE: April 16, 2025

On Friday, April 18, KET will debut a new concert special featuring Rick Steves, America's leading authority on European travel, and the Louisville Orchestra taking a musical journey that begins in the United States and touches down in seven different European countries.

This unique concert celebrates music's power to stir the patriotic soul. Playing musical tour guide, Steves utilizes his extensive knowledge of European history and culture to help set the context for each piece.
