

'Inside Louisville' tours Frankfort Avenue and gets a taste of Bourbons Bistro

FOR RELEASE: May 15, 2025

Frankfort Avenue is the main thoroughfare running through Louisville's Clifton and Crescent Hill neighborhoods. In the 1800s, it was the turnpike where farmers brought their goods from Frankfort and Shelbyville into the city. Lined by a working railroad, Frankfort Avenue is now a bustling business district full of locally-owned boutiques and restaurants, including Bourbons Bistro - a first-of-its-kind concept celebrating 20 years. A 2025 KET production.
