

KET Early Childhood Education Recognized as Honoree at Awards Breakfast

FOR RELEASE: June 10, 2025

KET is pleased to announce Early Childhood Education staff were recognized as honorees at the 2nd Annual Early Childhood Breakfast of Champions, hosted by the Early Childhood Learning Education Assessment Resource Network (EC LEARN).

“Your dedication to early childhood education has made a lasting impact on children, families, and the community. We are thrilled to recognize your partnership in Northern Kentucky and celebrate your commitment to shaping a stronger ECE landscape”, EC LEARN administrators remarked.

The award ceremony was held in Florence, KY on May 6, 2025. KET Education staff members Holly Ackerman and Amanda Wright accepted the award on behalf of KET Early Childhood Education.

KET is Kentucky’s largest classroom, providing trusted programming, lifelong learning opportunities and essential services to more than two million people each week.
