

Dale Josey of Louisville Honored by the Friends of KET with O. Leonard Press Award

FOR RELEASE: June 11, 2025

Congratulations to Friends of KET member Dale Josey of Louisville, who recently was presented with the O. Leonard Press Award, the highest honor given by the Friends of KET. Since 2006, Josey has been a tireless champion promoting the network and serving the needs of viewers in the Louisville area. Board members and staff are proud to celebrate his exemplary volunteer service and thank him for his commitment to supporting the mission and values of KET.

KET is Kentucky's largest classroom, providing trusted programming, lifelong learning opportunities and essential services to more than two million people each week.
