‘Inside Louisville’ ventures into the great outdoors

FOR RELEASE: June 26, 2025

Equitable access to nature is the goal of Wilderness Louisville, a non-profit organization. In addition to supporting dozens of natural areas in Jefferson County, the group also supports the Jefferson Memorial Forest, the largest nature preserve in the city and the largest municipally owned urban forest in the country. On the season finale of Inside Louisville, learn about the new master plan for the Jefferson Memorial and the educational outreach programs that aim to engage youth in outdoor recreation.
