

‘Inside Louisville’ explores efforts to preserve city’s history

FOR RELEASE: June 10, 2026

When it comes to documenting history, the Jefferson County Clerk’s Office may not be the first place that comes to mind. However, after thousands of records were recently uncovered in storage at the Louisville Mega Cavern, the Clerk’s Office partnered with the Filson Historical Society to preserve and digitize them. Learn how the Jefferson County Clerk’s Office handles everything from elections to records. A 2026 KET production.
