

‘Inside Louisville’ goes inside Louisville’s baseball history

FOR RELEASE: October 29, 2026

Although Major League Baseball left the city years ago, Louisville has a long history with America’s favorite pastime. On a new episode of Inside Louisville, host Kelsey Starks explores Louisville’s history as a baseball town, dating back to the 1800s when the city was part of the original National League. Plus, learn about the city’s success in the minor league and the famous Louisville Slugger bat.
