‘Inside Louisville’ goes inside the Sons of the American Revolution and meets author Mick Sullivan

FOR RELEASE: November 5, 2026

The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolutions, headquarted in Louisville, is preparing to open a new museum and education center. Host Kelsey Starks discovers how the organization, founded in 1889, preserves American history through education.

Just down the street at the Frazier History Museum, author and podcast host Mick Sullivan sparks children’s interest in history through his popular podcast, The Past and the Curious.
